Whereas the Council for the Town of Parry Sound wishes to ensure that all citizens of the Town of Parry Sound are able to provide their opinion to the question of the addition of fluoride to the drinking water in the Town of Parry Sound; and

Whereas per the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, as amended, in order to have a question added to the ballot during the next municipal election a public meeting must take place before the passage of said by-law and said by-law must be passed at least 180 days prior to Voting Day (scheduled for October 22, 2018),

Therefore, Be It Resolved That per the Fluoridation Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter F.22, 1(2), Council directs the Town Clerk to draft such a by-law in 2018 to add the following question to the 2018 Municipal Election Ballot:

Are you in favour of the fluoridation of the public water supply of this municipality?
