

Town of Parry Sound Development Charges Information Pamphlet

Purpose of Development Charges:

A capital charge imposed on growth, including new buildings, additions to existing buildings, redevelopment, and intensification. The development charges are to recover funding to assist in providing infrastructure required to service future development in the Town of Parry Sound through the establishment of a viable capital funding source to meet the municipality's financial requirements.

General:

This pamphlet summarizes the Town of Parry Sound's policies contained in the by-laws. However, the information contained herein is intended only as a guide, therefore, applicants should review the by-laws and consult with the Town's Building Department to determine the applicable charges that may apply to specific development proposals.

Development Charge by-laws are available for inspection at the Town of Parry Sound municipal office, Monday to Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM and on the municipality's website at <https://www.parrysound.ca/news/posts/development-charge-by-laws-passed/>.

By-laws and Applicable Services:

On June 6, 2023, the Town of Parry Sound passed the following Development Charge By-laws:

- By-law 2023-7346 related to Ambulance Services;
- By-law 2023-7347 related to Fire Protection Services;
- By-law 2023-7348 related to Library Services;
- By-law 2023-7349 related to Parks and Recreation Services;
- By-law 2023-7350 related to Provincial Offences Act, including By-law Enforcement Services; and
- By-law 2023-7351 related to Services Related to a Highway.

These by-laws establish the charges applicable to residential and non-residential development in the Town and are applicable on all lands within the Town boundaries. All of these by-laws became effective on June 6, 2023.

Timing of Payment:

The development charges are calculated and be payable at the time of the first building permit issuance, unless otherwise identified within the by-laws.
